

Continental Arms Indoor Pistol Range Classes

Chief Instructors: Carlo Porazzi & Jeanie Grant

MD HQL CLASS

This course presents in detail information pertaining to ammunition, cleaning and storage of handguns, and the techniques of marksmanship

The course includes an overview of the State's firearm laws, including a discussion regarding what constitutes a regulated firearm, how to properly purchase or transfer a firearm, where applicants are permitted to carry or transport a firearm, when it is necessary to possess a wear and carry permit, and who is prohibited from possessing firearms."

The Course satisfies the course requirements of training needed to apply for a Maryland Handgun Qualification License.

Students will receive
The Maryland Handgun Qualification License Certificate of Training

Course Objectives

Discuss and learn the rules of safe gun handling

Discuss in detail the operation of single and double action with both revolvers and semi-automatics

Discuss Home Firearm Safety including access to minors, safe storage & transportation of firearms

Work extensively with the fundamentals of marksmanship

Discuss ammunition and components in detail

Complete range live fire exercise

Complete cleaning practical

Overview of Maryland State Firearm Laws

Fee: $125, Non-Refundable
(Does Not Include cost of ammunition)
Class runs for 2 Consecutive Wednesday Nights
This is a 6 hour class/Class Size-10

To Register call 410-560-3609
For More Info Email: ladyshooter@comcast.net